About Make Music Chicago

Celebrating the ability of everyone to make music, Make Music Chicago is completely free for musicians and audiences alike. It is inspired by Fête de la Musique, a national musical holiday in France. Since its inaugural year in 1982, Fête de la Musique has become an international phenomenon taking place every June 21. In 2014, over 700 cities took part in 130 countries worldwide, easily making it the largest music event in the world. Make Music Chicago is part of a national group of "Make Music" cities that includes New York, Los Angeles, Boston, Seattle and Philadelphia. Make Music Chicago is presented by Rush Hour Concerts in partnership with the Chicago Park District.
