

THE PLAZA PROJECT

CORPORATE

Two North Riverside Plaza is situated on the west bank of the Chicago River, nestled between two of the Loop's primary thoroughfares and surrounded by some of Chicago's most powerful corporate entities. The Plaza is a current classic that offers not only the best of location, function and design, but also is a direct river access and an indoor connection to Ogilvie Station, one of the City's busiest hubs for commuter traffic.

Amenities

- Ramp for easy access to load in and out
- Access to water via the building
- 40 tables with umbrellas and seating for 160
- Nine bench seating arrangements
- Proximity to public transportation (bus, Metra/EL, water taxi)
- Additional storage facilities onsite

Load-in

- Loading zone with ramp located at 15 N. Canal Street
- Available for truck loading/unloading and standing

Capacity: 500

Square Footage: 17,000 sq. ft.

Foot traffic per day: 15,000

Parking: Street parking on Canal

Weight limit: 65 pounds per sq. ft.

